

Do you think about your wife enough? What would she say? I know what my wife says! Do you pray for her? Daily? How about even once a month? What if there were a powerful, simple way to improve your marriage that was rooted and even commanded in scripture? This book arms you with short, meaning-packed, scripture-based prayers you can pray for your wife. Use them any way you want - I've provided a list of ideas inside the book. This book is for you if you: are a Christian husband don't pray for your wife enough want to pray for her more frequently feel the weight of your responsibility to love your wife as Christ loved the church want to use powerful, heartfelt, but biblical language in your prayers don't know what to say when you pray for your wife don't know scripture well enough to pray biblically need a good starting point aren't prayer warriors want to set a Christ-like example for your children by loving your wife more want to show both love and leadership to your wife with the same spiritual discipline know your family is your first mission field but are overwhelmed, looking for a place to start WARNING: Do not buy this book if you are not convinced of the reality and depth of man's sin, our need for a Savior, or the truth of what Christ has done for sinners through his life and resurrection. The language in these prayers is UN-ASHAMEDLY scriptural and jam-packed with weighty words like sin, law, commandments, shame, flesh, etc. The gospel-saturated other side of that language is also in these prayers: words like free, faith, serve, delight, wondrous, refuge, song, adorn, reconciled, gospel, joy, strengthen, etc. So, if that doesn't scare you - download this book for your Kindle and enjoy - I hope you and your family are blessed by these simple but powerful prayers. Ephesians 5:25-29: 25 Husbands, love your wives, as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her, 26 that he might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word, 27 so that he might present the church to himself in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy and without blemish. 28 In the same way husbands should love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself. 29 For no one ever hated his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it, just as Christ does the church,
